HOW WE CAN HELP

Unlocking Philanthropic Potential

One-Off Workshops for Ambitious Foundations

Whether designing a new foundation or delving into governance intricacies with your Board, our tailored workshops unite key stakeholders —family, board, management, experts, and community organisations—for consensus building and deeper understanding.

Mission Unpacked: Comprehensive Review Process

From initial due diligence and stakeholder engagement to surveys and desk-based research, we ensure a range of important views shape your foundation's direction. We can also help with the important work of bringing your balance sheet/investment portfolio in line with your charitable mission.

Expert Guidance for Impact Measurement and Evaluation

We offer expertise to guide the development and monitoring of impact and evaluations. Talk to us about how we can help you develop robust and practical frameworks for impact measurement, Theory of Change and evaluation.

Implementing Change: Placing Impact Capital in Communities

With your strategy in place, we assist with implementing your granting program. Our ongoing support includes all elements of grants management to keep your initiatives on track.

TESTIMONIALS

INNER NORTH
COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION

Ben Rodgers, Executive Officer

“GoodWolf has facilitated strategic board conversations that has re-energized how we articulate impact, how we understand key relationships, and how this ultimately leads to growth and sustainability. The team has the skills - both technical and interpersonal - to get the job done.”

Western Health
FOUNDATION

Sharon Read, Acting Director

“The GoodWolf team were really inclusive and that got our board to think about things in a different way without being defensive – that’s a real art.

We’re all experts together we’re just experts in different things and GoodWolf creates a process where we can bring our expertise together.”

Helen Macpherson Smith Trust

Debra Morgan, CEO

“Through drawing on their own depth of knowledge, experience and networks and in harnessing the respective expertise of Trustees and Management, GoodWolf led our strategy review process around the big questions we face and helped us navigate through to a contemporary strategy, designed to amplify our support for disadvantaged Victorians.”
